INTRODUCTION

THE TEAM:

The Antistudio

What to Expect when Working With Us

Located at 10/71-77 Albert St, Osbourne Park (inside Parker & Stone), we make sure that when you come to see us your session will be completely unique. Our photography sessions normally take between 1-3 or more hours with hair, makeup and styling all available. Depending on the package you go for, you'll receive a number of digital images which can also be printed out at your own leisure after the shoot.

If you don't want to book our styling team with your photoshoot - no problem! You'll just be required to bring a few different outfits and we'll contact you prior to your session to run through styling and ideas. We love to personalise each session to reflect all of our clients individually so if you're not sure what style of photoshoot you'd like to try, we'll create a concept for you and talk you through it.

WHAT WE DO

If you contact us with a specific idea/inspo images we'll do everything we can to bring your vision to life! Alternatively, if you're not sure what style of photo shoot you'd like to try but just know you'd love to do something, we'll come up with an idea for you!

We start by putting together a mood board before your session and we'll discuss it all with you via email.

OUR STUDIO

Our studio is easily accessible with free street parking available right out the front. We're open by appointment only so when you come to shoot with us it'll just be yourself and the team. Nice and private!

SIMPLE PROCESS

Discovery Session

We have a quick chat over email to determine what it is that we can help with and what the most suitable package is for you.

The Mood

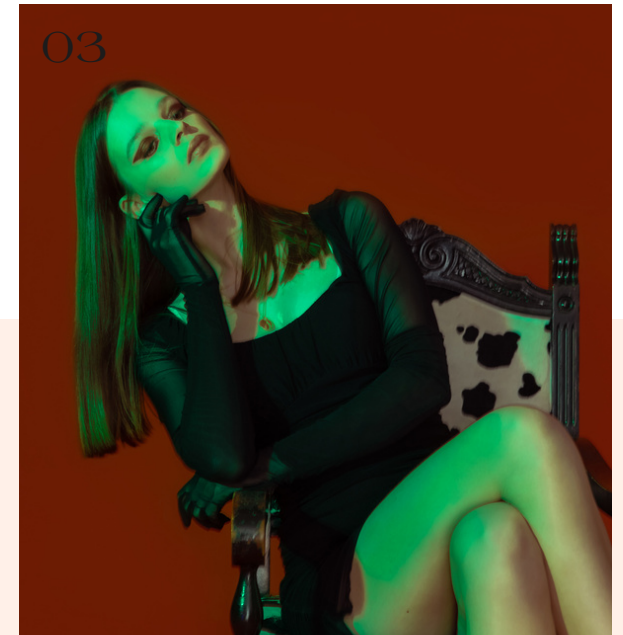

Next up, we work on the mood of the shoot and come up with a board of ideas for you. If you have your own ideas you can always send these to us! Once the idea is set, we lock everyone and everything in so we're ready on the day.

Delivery

Once you finish your shoot, you can head home and relax! We'll take up to 1 week to retouch your images and send them out to you to view and select your favourites.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When do I pay for the shoot?

Payments are usually made in two parts. The first part ($50 deposit) when you've accepted our proposal and have booked in a date. The remaining balance will be due on the day of your session.

How will we communicate before the shoot?

Most of the communication will be done via email or phone call. If we are able to however, on some occasions we can arrange a face to face meeting with you!

How can I pay?

We accept bank transfers, Eftpos and Afterpay. Payment details will be sent to you in an invoice.

What if I don't like the deliverables?

This rarely happens, but when it does, we'll arrange a meeting and go over the initial brief together and see how we can better hit the initial goals that we set.

How long will the whole thing take?

We'll specify the project length in our proposal. The shoot time will only be 1-2 hours however retouching and delivering your final images can take around 1-2 weeks.

Can I pay in smaller instalments?

Yes - with Afterpay! If you'd prefer to pay us in installments yourself, rather than use Afterpay, we can accept bank transfer payments that equate to your total balance before your shoot day. This way we'll book your shoot day in advance to give you the time to pay everything off.

Do you offer faster delivery?

We sometimes can offer an expedited process. Please contact us with details about your deadlines and project requirements to get a personal offer.

Do you offer refunds?

It is possible to cancel the project in the middle, but we can not refund the payments for already finished work.

Do you offer revisions?

We've set up the whole design process so we only start the final retouching process once we are on the same page. This means you'll also get to give feedback on the initial retouches before we do our final ones. What this means is that once we've finished the final design, there's rarely any need for revisions, since you've already approved the look of the image in the first phase.
